CHOICE MEATS

To Please the Palate

is our aim in serving meat—to retain the fine flavor Nature bestows, not to let it go to waste, as some meatshops do. Without prolonging this true tale, it may be set down for a fact that here is to be found a first-class place to purchase beef, mutton, ham, poultry and game, to give your table good credit with household and guest.

HALFMOON BAY ITEMS

"Chamarita" was duly celebrated here last Sunday. A record breaking crowd from all portions of the county came to enjoy the day. It was by far largest attendance that ever appeared at a similar celebration here. The Coast Artillery band, one of the finest and one of the most high-priced in San Francisco, furnished inspiring music. A barbecue in the afternoon satisfied the appetites sharpened by the ocean breezes of the visitors. All went merrily and it is a fact that the celebration was the most enjoyable of any held on the coast. Judge Buck of Redwood City, J. J. Bullock, the well known criminal lawyer of the county seat, County clerk Nash, Postmaster Swift, Deputy Auditor Ed. Stack, Tax Collector McSweeney, Sheriff Sheehan, Will Barg and others from Redwood City were among those present. H. C. Hall came over from Corte Madera to visit his son ,the popular and efficient grammar school principal, and to take in the celebration. A number of people came from San Francisco in their automobiles and enjoyed the day.

On Saturday last, six happy girls from Halfmoon Bay, chaperoned by Miss Mary Campbell, spent the week end in San Francisco, and between shopping and theatre-going had one good time. They were Misses Gerty Campbell, Pauline Simmons, Julia, Mabel and Rose Azevedo. In the evening Gerty Campbell motored down to San Mateo to attend the carnival which was held there Saturday evening.

John Meyn, Halfmoon Bay agent for the Ford automobile, was in San Francisco Monday buying Fords for Manuel Davis and the Standard Oil Company's agent at Halfmoon Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Lansing Griffith came down from the city to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Griffith, parents of the former. Last Sunday Walter Hoffman, a cousin of the younger Mrs. Griffith, also of San Francisco, came down for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wieslmann of Salinas were guests of Mrs. Schubert last Sunday. These people will be remembered by many coastsiders as they lived here for many years. They are wealthy ranchers. Mrs. Wieselmann before her marriage was Miss Olga Meltzner.

Gade Vallejo of Northern California is in Halfmoon Bay visiting his brother Fred and sisters, Misses Vallejo and his many old time friends.

Sheriff Sheehan and County Clerk Joe. H. Nash and Tax Collector A. McSweeney of Redwood City were on the coastside of San Mateo county Tuesday on official business.

The other day while at work in Pescadero, A. F. Joseph was summoned to appear at the bedside of his aged father who was dying. Joseph at once responded to the call and hurried to Benicia, but death had won the race. John Joseph was a native of Portugal, but he had emigrated to America many years ago, settling first in Boston and soon after coming to the Pacific coast where he was among the very first of his countrymen to settle in the vicinity of Halfmoon Bay. During the last ten years he had been making his home with Mrs. R. M. Brazil in Benicia ,one of his daughters. When he first came here, the deceased acquired what is known as the Stilson property, this he traded for what is now the Tony Joseph property on Johnston street. Mr. Joseph is survived by six children who are for the most part well known here. They are: Joseph Joseph of Watsonville, Antone F. Joseph of Halfmoon Bay, Mrs. B. F. King of Lodi, and Mrs. R. M. Brazil and Rev. Father Joseph of Benicia. Deceased was 86 years old at the time of his death.

TAKE THE LOAN

By Edward Everett Hale

(Written in May, 1861, at the outbreak of the Civil War)

Come, freeman of the land,
Come meet the great demand,
True heart and open hand,
Take the loan!

For the hopes the prophets saw,
For the swords your brothers draw,
For liberty and law
Take the loan!

Ye ladies of the land,
As ye love the gallant band,
Who have drawn the soldier's brand,
Take the loan!

Who would bring them what she could,
Who would give the soldier food,
Who would stanch her brother's blood,
Take the loan!

All who saw her hosts pass by,
All who joined the parting cry,
When be bade them do or die,
Take the loan!

As ye wished their triumph then,
As ye hope to meet again,
And to meet their gaze like men,
Take the loan!

Who could press the great appeal
Of our ranks of serried steel,
Put your shoulder to the wheel,
Take the loan!

That our prayers in truth may rise,
Which we press with streaming eyes,
On the Lord of earth and skies,
Take the loan!

OUR COUNTRY AND THE WAR

One present hope is that the British and French armies in western France will in the near future convince the Germans of the helplessness of their struggle.

But if that fails, America must come to realize the fact that this country is involved in a struggle that will require all of its resources, all the valor and endurance of its people to prosecute to a finish; that at least two great armies must be sent abroad; that the submarine must be met as becomes a courageous people of high purpose—all this, and whatever else that may be demanded by those who guide our destinies.

It may become necessary to convince the world that our's is really a world power in every sense of the word; that upon us is imposed the solemn duty of paving the way for the world's redemption.

We cannot evade destiny. We are in a state of war and we must see it through . That our country was established for a mighty purpose is plain enough; that we have been afforded such prosperity and advancements as never came to a nation before may be but the preparation for such a struggle as will terminate, either in triumph, or in such disasters as will almost change the face of nature.

In our dimmed vision we can peer but a short distance into the future, but one thing is certain—all sacrifice must be met; all valor of the nation must be enlisted to carry us through the struggle and enable us to demonstrate that the American people are great enough to do their duty to themselves and to all mankind.

TAUGHT THEM A LESSON.

The Czar's Rebuke to the Officers of One of His Regiments.

The czar is greatly loved by his own soldiers, and no wonder, for the following story is typical of him:

A certain Russian lieutenant who was none too well off was one day seen riding in a tram. The other officers of his regiment were furious at what they called an insult to the uniform, and they told the lieutenant that he must send in his papers. The unfortunate young officer had no alternative, but before he could do so the czar heard of the affair. Immediately putting on his colonel's uniform of the regiment in question, his majesty left the palace, hailed a passing tram and, entering it, sat calmly down until it stopped in front of the barracks.

There he got out and, assembling all the officers, said to them:

"Gentlemen, I have just ridden from the palace in a tram, and I desire to know if you wish me to send in my papers. I presume I have disgraced my uniform."

Naturally the officers were dumfounded.

"Sire," stammered the major nervously, "you could never do that."

"Then," answered the czar, smiling, "as I have not degraded the uniform Lieutenant —— cannot have done so and will thus retain his commission in this regiment even if he, like me, dares to ride in a tram."

After that snobbery died a speedy death in that particular regiment.—Pearson's.

Gravitation.

Both Dante and Shakespeare preceded Newton in knowledge of the principle if not the law of gravitation Shakespeare says in "Troilus and Cressida:"

But the strong base and building of my love
Is as the very center of the earth,
Drawing all things to it.

Three centuries before Shakespeare Dante said in the "Inferno:"

Thou dost imagine we are still
On the other side the celestial point, where I
Clasped the earth piercing worm, fell cause of ill,
So far I continued to descend,
That side we kept, but when I turned then we
Had passed the point to which all bodies tend.

Liberty Loan

America is Calling for Financial Volunteers

THAT AMERICA may strike the winning blows for the freedom and democracy of the world, your Government calls today for financial volunteers.

You who wish to see the war ended quickly—you who desire the prosperity and safety of American business—to you Uncle Sam offers today the opportunity to make the best financial and patriotic investment of your life.

To you the Secretary of the Treasury says: "The greatest immediate service the American people can render in this War for universal liberty throughout the world is to furnish the means for its vigorous prosecution. This bond issue is the first step. I earnestly bespeak the co-operation of every citizen throughout the length and breadth of the land in this great service of patriotism."

You Do Not Spend; You Save

In asking you to subscribe to the Liberty Loan your Government is not asking you to spend your money. Instead, it holds out to you a splendid opportunity to save and invest.

When you invest in a Liberty Bond you get a signed promise backed by the total resources of the richest nation in the world—a wealth of 250 billion dollars.

How the Financial Volunteer Aids His Country

The Liberty Loan is to be used by our Government to purchase our products and materials for ourselves or our allies. Not a dollar of this loan will leave this country or pay for other than American products. The financial volunteer enables his country to market more American goods.

The Liberty Loan is going to quicken the pulse of American business. It will broaden the market for American goods. Every railroad, every mill and every factory, every mine, every farm, will be pushed to its utmost to meet the increased activity caused by the Government coming into the market as a buyer on the largest scale in history.

Your purchase of a Liberty Bond means more business for your Government, more business for you and your investment is the safest in the world.

3½ Per Cent Net Income

Liberty Bonds bear 3½ per cent interest, payable semi-annually December 15th and June 15th. Our Government has made these bonds exempt from all taxes, except inheritance and estate taxes, so that they yield an absolutely net income of 3½ per cent.

If before the end of the war, Government bonds bearing higher interest should be issued, you can exchange your Liberty Bonds for them.

Bonds As Small As $50

These bonds have been purposely made in multiples of $50 so that every one might have this opportunity to become a Government Bond Holder. Liberty Loan Bonds mature in 30 years and are redeemable in 15 years. Bonds in multiples of $100 may be registered, so that the income comes to you automatically.

The Ideal Investment

Liberty Bonds combine the three requirement of an ideal investment to the greatest degree known—Safety Marketability and Return.

Safety—The wealth of the United States is estimated at 250 billion dollars,—over 80 times our total National debt (including this issue of Liberty Bonds). The annual income of the United States is estimated at about 400 times the annual interest charges on our total debt.

Marketability—United States Government bonds have always had a broad and ready market. No other bonds enjoy so immediate a market if you care to sell. Any bank will loan money on these bonds.

Return—The interest rate starts at 3½ per cent per year ($3.50 on a $100 bond). Considering the safety and salability of these bonds, the net return of 3½ per cent free of all taxes, except estate and inheritance taxes, is certainly an ample return.

Believing that it is the wish of this country to have this opportunity to invest and receive interest for the financial support they give in this war, rather than to carry the entire amount by taxation, your Government is offering you this chance today. This is a solid business proposition—a chance to invest in the best security in the world while at the same time performing as patriotic an act as you can do.

Be a Government Bond Holder in the greatest war of liberation the world has ever known.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Redwood City as Seen Through Incidents Gathered Here and There

Miss Kitty Crowe is spending her vacation in Yosemite Valley. Miss Crowe writes that she is delighted with that wonderland. She is a guest at Camp Curry.

All the saloon keepers in town have raised the price of beer from five to ten cents. The raise went into effect yesterday.

This week David Flynn, local agent for the Ford automobile, sold a touring car to N. R. Greco and a runabout to B. F. Richardson, of the Bank of California residing at Belmont.

The two-story barn erected on the property of G. P. Hartley nearly forty years ago was moved from Fuller street to the rear of the San Carlos dairy this week . It is an old landmark and will be improved in its new location.

It was reported yesterday that German spies were in this vicinity and were engaged at night throwing flashlights on Searsville lake. The officers are making every effort to discover them. Should they be found the government will mete out just punishment to the offenders.

The big dredger that has been rebuilding the dikes in the Tacoma Mill property for several months past will complete the work on June 15. T. L. Murray with his mosquito abatement crew will then oil and drain the beds of the dikes, the breeding places of the little insect, with the hope of exterminating them.

Major Manchester was in town on Wednesday looking for 250 Britishers to serve the colors as foresters. This unit will be required to get out materials for reconstruction made necessary by the war. Millmen, sawyers, filers, axemen, loggers and teamsters are wanted across the seas. Age limit, 19 to 48 years. For full information apply to 268 Market street, San Francisco. Room 250.

Mrs. D. Geary and her daughter Gertrude will leave next week for Seattle to spend the greater portion of the summer with Mrs. Geary's aged mother. Miss Geary, who is the efficient stenographer for Judge Fitzpatrick, has been granted a leave of absence for two months. Mrs. Geary and her daughter will visit other points while in the north.

Next Tuesday is a legal holiday and is known as Registration Day. Every business house in this city, including the saloons, will be closed and it is to be a genuine holiday. All male persons between the ages of 21 and 30 years, inclusive, will register at the county clerk's office. Mr. Nash and his deputies will certainly be busy on that day. It is believed that over 300 young men will register here.

The editor of the Mercury-Herald of San Jose, E. K. Johnston, will be the speaker at the open forum at the Baptist auditorium next Sunday evening. His subject is: "The Press and the World Crisis." This promises to be one of the most interesting discussions of the forum, as Mr .Johnston is a very able man and fully up in the vital questions of the day. He will be introduced by a local editor. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock and everybody is invited. At the 11 o'clock service Rev. C. M. Gardener of Oakland will preach. Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

During the week the Levy block, better known as the Capital hotel property and owned by the Levy estate, on Broadway, was sold. The price paid for the property is not known except that it was a fancy figure. The block contains the postoffice, Lloyd's candy store, the Capital bar, Gardiner's clothing store Crosby's pool room and an unoccupied store. The block is one of the most valuable in town. The deal was closed yesterday and the deed will in all probality, be filed today. The big hotel building was erected by the late W. Z. Price about twenty-five years ago at a cost of $75,000. Originally the building contained three stories, but the earthquake destroyed the two upper stories and they were never rebuilt.

If you have Watch trouble see watch doctor, George Peterson, 214 Main street, Sequoia Hotel Building, Redwood City.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the pastor will preach on Missions in the war zone and do we want whiskey? Layman's night at 8 o'clock. Dr. F. G. De Stone will speak on the science of right eating. Do not fail to hear him. Sunday school at 9:45 and Endeavor society at 7 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

PLAYS LAST ACT IN DRAMA OF LIFE

Final Prayers Said for Soul of James M. Brophy, Monday, at Santa Rosa

James M. Brophy, the well known actor and brother of Mrs. H. C. Finkler of Redwood City, passed away on May 26th, at his home in Santa Rosa and was burried on May 28th at San Rafael. Mr. Brophy made his first appearance on the stage in San Francisco in 1886. He was splendidly received and was successful from that time until he was stricken with paralysis. He was blessed with a magnificient voice and splendid stage presence. On August 23, 1896 in the part of The Ensign in which he was starring at the Grand Opera House in San Francisco he played the banner week and was presented with a costly diamond cane by Walter Morosco, manager of the Grand Opera house. Mr. Brophy was very charitable and kind, making friends wherever he went. His sister was at his bedside when he passed away. The Press Democrat of Santa Rosa published the following concerning the deceased:

For the final benediction of his faith they carried the mortal remains of the late James M. Brophy into the Church of St. Rose on Monday afternoon. From the church the cortege went to San Rafael and there the actor was left at final rest beside his mother. Father McElroy saying the commital prayers, Father J. M. Cassin having had charge of the services here.

The death of Brophy removes another of the well known actor folk. He brought laughter and sunshine to many hearts in his playing before the footlights. In the gossip of the green room there had always been a kindly word for Brophy. With Brady and Hart he had starred in a number of play offerings. While in London two or three years ago with one of Brady's plays he was stricken with paralysis and was unable to assume his role and for the remainder of his life he was an invalid, another stroke of paralysis following another. He He passed peacefully to rest in a room in the Mary Jesse hospital in Santa Rosa, whither he had been brought. The veteran actor, like all mankind, could not get out of playing his role in the last act of life's drama in which the scene shifts and from time to eternity. He faced the coming transition like a man and did not falter.

Relatives were here to attend the funeral services. The deceased was survived by two sisters, Mrs. H. C. Finkler and Mrs. S. B. Waite, and two brothers, Arthur and John Brophy of San Francisco.
